In the Mayor's Sanctum... How Many Dogs? A Druggist Arrested A New Reading Room-Personals.

MANCHERER BUREAU RICHMOND TIMES, 1121 HULL STREET, BEATTIE BLOCK. Mr. J. W. Parsons and Miss Minnie R.

Reynolds, granddaughter of Rev. Thomas E. Reynolds, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock last night at the residence of her grandparents. Rev. James W. Reynolds, uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony. Miss Minnie is a very pretty and attractive young lady, and has many friends in this city who wish the young couple much happiness through life. They left for an extended northern tour.

Charles Murrill (colored) was before the Mayo's Court yesterday morning, charged with the larceny of a gold watch chain, the property of Mr. G. D. Patch. Mr. Patch's house was broken into last fall and the chain, together with other articles, stolen. Some days ago Mr. Patch met Mr. Stokes, of Richmond, who had on a chain which Mr. Patch identified as on a chain which air Faten destruct as his. It was proven yesterday morning that Mr. Stokes purchased the chain over a year ago from Bachrach's pawn-shop, and Mr. Bachrach testified that the chain was pawned with him on December 25, 891, by a white man. There was not a particle of evidence against Murrill, and was discharged.

The jury in the case of Clements vs. the Richmond and Manchester Street Rail-way Company brought in a verdict Tues-day afternoon for $2,500 in favor of the plaintiff. A motion was made to set aside the verdict, which motion was overruled. An appeal will be taken to the Supreme

How many dogs are in Chesterfield? is a question that is now being frequently asked in the county since the Board of Supervisors decided to tax all the cantnes. Supervisors decided to tax all the canines. Some persons seem to think that there are four thousand dogs in the county. If this is the case the county will derive a good revenue from the dog tax.

Mr. J. C. Snellings, a Manchester druggist, was arrested and taken to the Third station yesterday morning on complaint.

station yesterday morning on complaint of Mr. E. L. Driscoll, who lives on Pine street. The latter charges the druggist with assault and battery. The affair occurred several days ago over an unpaid bill, at the residence of Mr. Driscoll. Mr. Snellings was balled for his appearance before the Police Court today.

The following communication is certainly a most praiseworthy scheme:

Manchester, Va., April 25, 1894.

Having been a pastor in your city for more than a year, and seeing the need of a public reading room-a home-for the oung men of our city, a place for them to go to keep them from standing on the street corners, or loitering about the saloons and other public places, we have determined to open a public reading room for the young men, and to furnish the same with the morning and nish the same with the horning and evening papers, also weeklies, and several magazines, such as the Forum, Century, Young Men's Era, Youth's Companion, and others. This room shall be free, and a velcome is extended to all. Every young man will be expected to deport himself room ready in about ten days.

of the citizens that are interested in this movement for our young men will please give us their aid and sympathy. We will be glad to have money for expenses, and those that have books may donate them or loan them for a time. Any ald in this way will be highly

The pastor will vacate his study in the rear of Cowardin-Avenue Christian church, and this will be fitted up for the young men. This room will be made as pleasant as we can make it, that all may feel at home. Will not the citizens help

Yours in the interest of the young men, W. H. TRAINUM. The seventy-third anniversary of Odd-Fellowship will be celebrated by Stuart. Henderson, and Swansboro Lodges to-night in the lodge-room of Henderson Lodge in Toney's Hall. Speeches will be made by several grand officers and other prominent Odd-Fellows. There will also be vocal music. The members of this no-ble order in this city are looking for-ward to this meeting with much interest. Odd-Fellowship in this city is growing very rapidly, and many new members ar being received by all the lodges. Stuart Lodge will meet at their hall at 7:30 o'clock this evening and proceed to Toney's Hall in full regulia. The number of members of the order in this city is

The series of meetings that have been progress for nearly four weeks in the owardin-Avenue Christian church closed last night. These meetings have been attended with great success, with 101 confessions up to date. Rev. W. H. Book, of Clifton Force, assisted the pastor the first two weeks, and the Rev. G. P. Rutledge is now helping him.

John Douglas, alias Johnson, worried the officers of the Second station yesterday by making a barrel of noise. He was arrested by Sergeant Tomlinson on complaint of Charles Gliber, who charges Douglas with having stolen his coat, vest, and trousers. When locked up the prismer proceeded unceremoniously to have a violent fit. The ambulance was summoned, but the physician in charge found the negro to be all right and went away. The prisoner, however, relapsed into his former condition, shouting, yelling, and exhibiting worse symptoms than before. All through the morning he induged in a series of fits, which, it is believed, were but delusions and not genuine.
